Appeal to GPD L Students

The admission process to GPD L is stopped from the year 2014-2015.

Because new students are not admitted, the number of old students attending the resident sessions is decreasing year by year.

Hence, at some stage the number of students willing to complete resident session will be too small so that it may not possible to conduct resident sessions.

Appeal: Students should spare time from their activities and see that their resident sessions are completed and they acquire the diploma at the earliest.

The Institute shall always support their efforts.
